

FHS Promise Week: Empowering Young Minds Through Educational Access

Francis Holland School also recently celebrated its inaugural Promise Week, uniting the community to support bursaries, the Promise Campaign, and the Hardship Fund. This week-long initiative embodied the school's commitment to ensuring every pupil feels empowered to pursue her aspirations.

Activities included a sponsored Rowing and Cycling Challenge that raised £2,570 (with matched funding) and featured Olympic rower Becky Wilde. Pupils also crafted 'Make a Promise' bracelets, demonstrating their creative engagement.

The highlight was the Jazz Night which welcomed alumna Diana Virgovicova, now Xatoms CEO and Forbes 30 Under 30 honouree. Diana shared how her FHS Foundation Scholarship transformed her life, leading to groundbreaking work in water purification technology that will benefit millions worldwide.
