

FHS headmistress retires

Stephanie Pattenden is retiring in July after 15 years as headmistress of Bourne Street's Francis Holland School.

She is succeeded at the girls' school by Lucy Elphinstone, who is currently Senior Leader and Head of Sixth Form at Downe House, a girls' boarding school in Berkshire.

Speaking of her departure, Miss Pattenden said: "After 15 happy years as headmistress I am delighted to be handing over to Mrs Elphinstone.

"I shall greatly miss all those associated with Francis Holland but look forward to hearing lots of news and attending some functions in the future."

What's new

Surveying Belgravia

Grosvenor is conducting a survey to find out more about the day-to-day lives of people who spend time in Belgravia.

The Belgravia Life survey is taking place in partnership with the Belgravia Residents Association, as well as the three traders' associations on Motcomb Street, Elizabeth Street and Pimlico Road.

The online questionnaire is designed to better understand how people live and work in Belgravia, and Grosvenor is hoping to attract as many responses as possible from Belgravia residents, retailers and office workers.

Those who complete the survey can register for a free prize draw for a chance to win an iPad. The results will be displayed on the website in summer 2012.

A spokesman for Grosvenor said: "The results of the survey will help inform the decisions of Grosvenor, local community groups and businesses operating in the area and help us all to make Belgravia in to an even better place for those who spend time here."

Two Belgravia sculptures have been named in a list of the top ten modern sculptures in London. Belgrave Square's

Homage To Leonardo by Enzo

Plazzotta came tenth, and the Lioness and Lesser Kudu

(pictured)

by Jonathan

Kenworthy in Upper

Grosvenor Gardens

came second

Errol Douglas has given his salon

at 18 Motcomb Street an exciting makeover. The celebrity hairdresser –

who has styled Brad Pitt, Diana Ross,

Kelly Brook and Uma Thurman – is now offering more luxury services to his clients. There's an in-house chef, new "look book" iPads and an express range that provides hair treatments and a manicure within 90 minutes.

Belgravia

Editor Kate White

(kate@pubbiz.com 020 7259 1057)

Publisher Adrian Day (day@pubbiz.com)

Designer Andy Lowe

Sub-editor Jamie Downham

Advertisement managers

Sam Bradshaw, Bridget Rodricks

(020 7259 1050)

While we always do our best to ensure that firms and organisations appearing in the magazine are reputable, the Editor can give no guarantee that they will fulfil their obligations in all circumstances. Readers must therefore deal with them at their own risk.

Produced for Grosvenor

70 Grosvenor Street, London W1K 3JP

by Publishing Business

Blandel Bridge House, 56 Sloane Square,

London SW1W 8AY

Uncovering floor of a

When builders peeled carpet at 12 Upper Bel year, they made an am

Underneath lay a st which has now been re glory, adding serious s entrance hall of Grosve

Built in 1825, the G property was once hon Bagehot, the business who was editor-in-chie for 17 years. Today a b wall of the building be

The Institute of Taxa building's final tenant began its refurbishme

The origin been resto to enhance the room also bee missing b to match The

Praise for local

Three Belgravia pubs have been ra most sustainable restaurants.

The Thomas Cubitt, The Pantech Orange, which are owned by Cubitt awarded the highest ranking by the Restaurant Association (SRA).

The SRA said it was impressed local ingredients and the venues'