

Eaton Square Sixth-Form's founding headmaster has been announced as John Wilson. Mr Wilson, who is currently the co-head at Eaton Square Mayfair, will start his new role in September 2020 when the new sixth-form college opens in Belgravia.

Susan Brooks is to be the first head of NorthWood Senior, the newest addition to the Northwood Schools group. Educated in Australia, Ms Brooks is currently deputy head (academic) at Broomwood Hall, the first school to open in the Northwood Schools Group.

ACS International School Cobham appoints Barnaby Sandow as head from this September. Mr Sandow moves from Jerudong International School in Brunei. He strongly believes that 'schooling with an international outlook is what the world needs right now.'

Sarah Richardson will take up the headship of Mount House School, Herts, in September 2020. A history graduate from the University of Kent and currently the deputy head of The Perse School, Ms Richardson said, 'The moment I walked through the front doors I felt at home.'

Andrew Allman has been appointed as the new headmaster of the fastest growing independent school in the UK, Myddelton College, Denbigh. Mr Allman attended Shrewsbury School, before reading Theology at Durham University.

Major Gen. Ben Bathurst inspecting Millfield's CCF

NEW COLLEGE

One of the oldest schools in the country, King's College, Canterbury, has opened its pioneering King's International College, which is designed to be a stepping stone school for pupils aged 11 to 16 who are entering the UK education system for the first time.

Millfield School stands to attention with its officially launched Combined Cadet Force (CCF). Partnered with St Dunstan's School, Glastonbury, the corps' first inspection was conducted by Major General Ben Bathurst CBE. Aligned with the Welsh Guards, 100 pupils, now new cadets at the Somerset sporting power house, are excited by the new ways they can now pursue outdoor activities.

Atul Kochhar and Irfan Latif, DLD College London Principal

FOOD FOR ALL

As part of a new upgrade, Portland Place, Marylebone, opened a school refectory where healthy meals are made on site. 'We are seeing lots of clean plates,' says head, David Bradbury.

Michelin-starred chef, Atul Kochhar opened DLD College, Westminster's, new dining space. Oliver Towler, the chef, promises constantly changing and exciting menus to match the 'Global Kitchen' theme.

Royal Opera House, Live@Bry

Residents of Dorset can now see Royal Opera House productions right on their doorstep.

Bryanston School's theatre has been fully equipped with the technology required to live stream the ROH's productions to Coade Hall. Some Live@Bry, performances are open to the public; tickets can be purchased online.

Lancing College and Friends of Lancing Chapel have launched a fundraiser campaign to complete the West End of the Lancing Chapel. With 80 per cent achieved, they are seeking the final £195,500 to complete the work on the largest school chapel in the world.

A digital render of St Dunstan's new STEM building and sixth-form hub

SWISH NEW SIXTH-FORM CENTRES

Bede's School, Sussex, has unveiled its brand new sixth-form centre, equipped with a coffee bar, social space and individual and group study rooms allowing for a more independent sixth-form experience. Likewise pupils at King Edward's School, Bath, were delighted to find their new sixth-form centre echoing a university-style space for working in.

Francis Holland in London is rehoming its sixth-form to its new Centre for Creative Enterprise, a place that goes above and beyond a study space – the sixth-form girls will also be able to meet business mentors and practice interview techniques and CV presentation.

St Dunstan's College, London, is partnering with Willmott Dixon for a significant planning development including work on a new junior school, STEM building and a sixth-form hub.